The Mayor of Collins Chabane Local Municipality Cllr Shadrack Maluleke ,today, 11 April 2025, visited the bereaved family, following social media reports and community outrage over the brutal killing of pensioner Khazamula Ronald Mabasa who was killed in his home at Gumbani village outside Malamulele town after he had received his grant. The elderly man was found the following day by his family members. During his visit, Mayor Maluleke extended his heartfelt condolences to the Mabasa family and all residents of Gumbani village and has further urged the South African Police Service to speed up their investigation into the case while at the same pleaded with the community to be the first defenders of elderly people. “It is a rotten culture to abuse elderly citizens and it must come to an end. We cannot tolerate this behaviour of terrorising our communities and making elderly people to live in fear especially people who cannot defend themselves. We shall try by all means to push the SAPS to catch the perpetrators of this crime and we believe that the hand of justice shall prevail”, said Mayor Maluleke.
