

Collins Chabane Local Municipality visits the Manganye Family at Xithlelani Village following the brutal killing of a young woman.

As the country continues to fight the scourge of Gender-Based Violence against women and children, another young woman from Xithlelani Village under Collins Chabane Local Municipality has been brutally murdered by her boyfriend.

A 32 year old Ntshembo Manganye from Xithlelani Village was brutal killed by her Boyfriend last week.

The representative of the Mayor, Exco member Councillor Shadrack Gezani Maluleke has condemn the continuously attack on women and has pledged that the Municipality will support the family until the last day of the preparations.

"We should all play a role in ensuring that women and children are safe. Innocent people should not die while we watch and keep quiet and we believe that the perpetrator should be given lengthy jail sentences in order to send a strong message that we are intolerant of the abuse of women and children".

The municipality has urged the law enforcement agencies to ensure that the perpetrator of this violent should face the equally punishment and has thanked the Community for remaining calm and allow the hands of justice to prevail.
