

COLLINS CHABANE YOUTH COUNCIL LAUNCHED SUCCESSFULLY

By Tracy Chabalala

From left: Collins Chabane Chief Whip, Miyelani Chauke, Mayor Moses Maluleke and Exco Members during youth council Launch.

The municipality of Collins Chabane launched its first successful Youth Council on Friday 1st of March at Malamulele boxing gym.

The Youth Council meeting was attended by young people from various youth formations and representatives from all 36 wards within Collins Chabane.

Ten young people were elected to serve in the Youth Council local structure comprising of top Five executives and Five additional members which includes gender balance and disability representative.

The Mayor of the municipality, his worship, Cllr Moses Maluleke emphasised on the importance of leadership and the success of working together as youth of Collins Chabane in order to bring change.

The newly elected Youth Council Chairperson, Nsovo Masingi, promised to serve the needs of young people in the subregion and that they will work in their powers to create job opportunities for the youth until the end of their term of office.

The launch was also attended by Executive Committee members, Acting Municipal Manager, Directors of departments together with their on duty officials.