

MAHATLANI RESIDENTS RECEIVED THE PROMISED WATER DISTRIBUTION FROM THE MUNICIPALITY.

Residents of Mahatlani village in ward Two under Collins Chabane Local Municipality were over the moon after the Mayor of Collins Chabane fulfilled his promises of intervening on water challenge within the village.

Mayor Maluleke addressed a group of frustrated residents of Mahatlani village after the requested to meet with the Mayor concerning the water challenge which has become a provincial challenge.

Sam Tivani a resident of Mahatlani told Collins Chabani Communication Unit that he is now pleased that the Mayor responded to their concerns after a very productive meeting.

“We are now happy that the Mayor is responding to our issues and we have trust in the municipality, checking the fact the water crisis is not only affecting us but the municipality is trying its best to attend to us”, he said.

The municipality committed itself to continue distributing water to all the villages through the purchased water trucks while working in hand with the District and Province to find a permanent solution.

Residents of Mahatlani village in ward Two queuing for water distribution supplied by Collins Chabane water trucks.