

MAYOR SHADRACK MALULEKE TAKES MAYORAL IMBIZO TO MASHAU VILLAGE.

As part of the Municipality's commitment to engage communities on Service delivery programmes, Mayor Shadrack Maluleke took the Mayoral Imbizo to Mashau Village in ward 07. The purpose of the Imbizo was to engage communities regarding the Municipality programmes that seek to advance service delivery in ward 07. The outreach also meant to close the gap between government and people by collecting issues raised by the communities which should be handed over to sector departments in order to uplift the communities. Mayor Maluleke started the imbizo presentation with highlighting some achievements accomplished in Mashau Village and mentioned some of the learners who were funded by the municipality to further their tertiary studies, water reticulation projects which are at completion stage, grading of streets and other projects. The Mayor was joined by the Chief Whip Cllr Erick Baloyi, Speaker Cllr Thina Mbedzi and Executive Committee Members.
