

Mayor Shadrack Maluleke Congratulates Collins Chabane born Nikiwe Makondo for being crowned Miss Intercontinental South Africa 2023.

Nikiwe Makondo (20) who is the first youngest person to be crowned Miss Intercontinental SA hails from GreenFarm village under Collins Chabane Local Municipality is currently doing her final year in International Relations at the University of Pretoria and was previously crowned 2nd princess for Miss Teenager SA 2nd princess where she was also invited as a Mayoral guest during SOMA22.

Reacting to the news, Mayor Shadrack Maluleke said " Indeed we are becoming a hub of good stories as the Municipality; Her crowning sends a clear message to the young women of Collins Chabane that you can achieve anything if you remain focused on our objective. To her we say, you are an inspiration to millions to particularly young women and children to never stop dreaming, to believe in themselves and to stop at nothing to pursue their goals. Congratulations.", Mayor said.

Nikiwe Makondo will be representing South Africa in Egypt as the official delegate from South Africa.

"As Miss Intercontinental South Africa I am passionate about raising awareness on mental health and holistic health and as the winner of Miss Intercontinental South Africa, I am the official South African representative for Miss Intercontinental which is an international pageant for young women from various countries and i will be representing South Africa in Egypt as the official delegate in October", she said.

