

Priceless gift: Mayor Moses Maluleke mourns Chief Busa Charles Nxumalo.

Mayor Moses Maluleke said words were not enough to express the sad loss of Chief Nxumalo. “We wish to express, on behalf of Collins Chabane Municipality and all our residents, our deepest condolences and the heartfelt solidarity with the Nxumalo family at this hour, may his soul rest in eternal peace.

The family reported that Chief Nxumalo died at the age of 49 at the Letaba Hospital on Sunday morning following a short illness as a result of Covid-19 complications.

"His passing has made Collins Chabane poorer given his long history of activism and his contribution in the struggle of fighting for Collins Chabane Local Municipality and the Vatsonga people," said the mayor.

“The collective of Collins Chabane bow its head in honouring our Chief and heroine.”

Chief Nxumalo will be remembered for his dedication to community development through the establishment of various support initiatives and programmes towards the empowerment of communities.

In his passing, Chief Nxumalo was serving as the Chairperson for Collins Chabane Contrallesa, he was also a member of Limpopo House of Traditional Leaders, he also served as Malamulele task team member, a structure which was designated to fight for the Municipality, he participated in strategic planning sessions of the Municipality, Tihosi-Mahosi forum and a Portfolio member for Legislation and Traditional Affairs Committee.

“To Chief Nxumalo, a teacher by profession, we say thank you for serving as a shining example of what it means to be a servant leader and may we forever draw our inspiration from the teachings of so gentle a soul,” Mayor said.

He will always be part of the reservoir of knowledge we draw lessons from. We were blessed to have him amongst us.

His legacy in the realms of community activism and Education is a priceless gift to our communities.

Etlelani hi ku rhula Nxumalo, ndhwandhwe.

Issued by:
Collins Chabane Local Municipality

For more information.

Robert Mathye.
Media Liaison Officer.
072 684 9954

Raymond Hlungwani (MJ)
Communications Officer.
066 477 9695